

Contents

Preface.....	9
Abbreviations	13
I. Textual-historical overview on the Canones apostolici	15
I.1. The Contents of the Collection	15
I.2. The History of the Collection until the 7 th century	17
I.3. The importance of the Canones apostolici in the Eastern Canon Law Collections	18
I.4. The Canones apostolici in the West until the Codification	19
I.5. Conclusion	23
II. The Collectio Dionysio-Hadriana and its Discipline regarding Bishops.....	25
II.1. The Sources of Rules concerning Bishops	25
II.2. Episcopal Consecration	26
II.3. Removal of Bishops.....	28
II.4. Transfer of Bishops	30
II.5. Further Rules.....	31
II.6. Conclusion	34
III. Rules concerning Bishops in the Decretales Pseudo-Isidorianae, especially the Regulation on the Death of Bishops	35
III.1. The Collection	36
III.2. Disciplinary material concerning Bishops in the Pseudo-Isidorian Collection	37

III.3.	The Death of the Bishop and its effect.....	39
III.4.	Conclusion.....	44
IV.	The Decretum Burchardi Wormatiensis and its Discipline regarding Bishops	45
IV.1.	Burchard of Worms and his Canonical Collection	45
IV.2.	Rules concerning Bishops in the Collection of Burchard of Worms.....	48
IV.3.	Conclusion: The Disciplinary Effect of the Collection and its Afterlife	57
V.	Notes on the 74 Titles Digest	59
V.1.	The 74 Title Digest Collection.....	59
V.2.	The Chapters concerning Bishops	61
V.3.	The Contents of Chapters	65
V.4.	Conclusion.....	67
VI.	Anselm of Lucca and his Canonical Collection.....	69
VI.1.	Cathedral School in Lucca.....	69
VI.2.	The Development of the different versions of Anselm's Collection.....	71
VI.3.	The Contents of Anselm's Collection.....	73
VI.4.	Roman law canons.....	74
VI.5.	Patristic texts	79
VI.6.	Conclusion.....	81

VII. Ivonian intention to collect all of the Disciplinary Sources of the Church	83
VII.1. General Peculiarities of the Panormia’s Structure as compared with the Decretum of Ivo	85
VII.2. Supplementary material at the end of Ivo’s collections	89
VII.3. The manuscript BAV Pal. lat. 587.....	92
VII.4. The manuscript 369 of Angers, Bibliothèque Municipale	96
VII.5. Conclusion	105
VIII. Development of Contents and Structure.....	107
VIII.1. The Contents and Structural Peculiarity of Ashburnham 53....	108
VIII.2. St. Petersburg, Nationalnaya Biblioteka O. v. II. 4	109
VIII.3. The structural peculiarity of the Tripartita textual family	112
VIII.4. Conclusion	114
Appendix I: Firenze, Bibliotheca Medicea-Laurentiana, Ashburnham 53	117
Appendix II: St. Petersburg, Nationalnaya Biblioteka O. v. II. 4.....	123
Appendix III: Writings of Gregory the Great (590-604) in the First Part of the Collectio Tripartita (Comparative Table of Gregory the Great’s Original Texts).....	129
Bibliography	135
Sources	135
Literature.....	138
Index of Manuscripts.....	151